

ADVOCACY DONE RIGHT: 2020 Policy Series on Human Trafficking and Human Rights

Human Trafficking Collaborative Network, Institute for Public Health and National Council of Jewish Women St. Louis jointly offer this three-part seminar series to help community members fully understand national and local law-making procedures and to play an advocacy role in policy reform in human rights and trafficking. Open to the public.

Thursday, February 20th, 2020:

Healthcare and Legislation in Missouri and Texas <https://bit.ly/37HivkM>

- Time: 4:00 to 5:30 PM
- Place: Institute of Public Health, 600 S. Taylor, St. Louis 63110, 2nd Floor

Thursday, March 19th, 2020:

Safe Harbor Laws <https://bit.ly/37Fx48I>

- Free, RSVP is requested
- Parking available behind bldg. or the garage next door

Thursday, April 16th, 2020:

Service Providers Panel

<https://bit.ly/35zHCUT>

- Community service drive
- Topics subject to change

National Council of Jewish Women St. Louis

Clark-Fox
Policy Institute

BROWN SCHOOL AT WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

UNITED NATIONS ASSOCIATION
OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Saint Louis Chapter

Washington
University in St. Louis

INSTITUTE FOR PUBLIC HEALTH